

THANKSGIVING RIDDLE TREASURE HUNT

Thanksgiving is a day for joy and fun,
our treasure hunt has begun.
So follow the clues, achieve a great feat,
I'm just betting you might find a treat.

THANKSGIVING FUN FACT:

The most familiar story claims the first Thanksgiving took place in Plymouth Colony in 1621.

Whew! We're finally done!
I hope you had some fun.
This was great, such a pleasure,
enjoy your Thanksgiving treasure.

THANKSGIVING FUN FACT:

More than 200 years later, President Lincoln declared the last Thursday in Nov. a national day of thanksgiving

While we have many clues,
Go to where you stick your feet,
In other words, check your _____

THANKSGIVING FUN FACT:

Congress finally made Thanksgiving Day an official national holiday in 1941.

Shoes

You brush your teeth,
so let's make haste,
to this tooth cleaning item,
the _____.

THANKSGIVING FUN FACT:

In 2001, the U.S. Postal Service issued a commemorative Thanksgiving stamp.

Toothpaste

Having fun, it's fantastic,
Let's go to where we put dirty clothes,
the clothes _____.

THANKSGIVING FUN FACT:

AAA said that 42.2 million Americans traveled 50 miles or more from home over the 2010 Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

Basket

When you're tired,
it's only fair,
you sit down and rest
in your favorite _____.

THANKSGIVING FUN FACT:

Minnesota is the top turkey-producing state in America

Chair